by adding the following new section immediately preceding the last section and by renumbering the subsequent section accordingly:

SECTION _____. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 10-7-506(c), is further amended by adding the following new subsection to be designated as (5) and by renumbering present subsection (c)(5) accordingly:

(5) The development cost recovery fees authorized by subpart (2) of this subsection shall be limited to not more than ten percent (10%) of the total development costs unless additional development cost recovery between ten percent (10%) and twenty percent (20%) is approved by the following procedure. For counties to which this subsection applies, a proposed Business Plan explaining the need for the additional development cost recovery must be prepared. Approval for additional development cost recovery as contained in the proposed Business Plan must be obtained from the appropriate governing legislative body. If the governing legislative body approves additional development cost recovery, such recovery shall be submitted to the Information Systems Council for approval. The development costs of any system being recovered with fees authorized by this section shall be subject to audit by the comptroller of the treasury, it being the legislative intent that once such additional fees have paid the portion of the development costs authorized above, such fees shall be adjusted to generate only the amount necessary to maintain the data and ensure that it is accurate, complete and current for the life of the particular system. Notwithstanding the limitations above, the recovery of maintenance
